"Foreign Affairs and You"

Former Assistant Secretary of State Andrew Berding and his wife were the guests of honor at a party given by the Jack Bells to celebrate the publication of Andy's new, hot-off-the-presses book, "Foreign Affairs and You!"

Most of the Dulles family turned up for the 6-to-8 party in the Bells' Westchester apartment. Mrs. John Foster Dulles was there, Mrs. Eleanor Dulles and Allen Dulles.

Though he was formerly Director of the Central Intelligence Agency, Mr. Dulles was at a loss to know the answer to a question he himself posed regarding a development so new it was not one he had to contend with in CIA. Would the Russians be able to jam a Telstar telecast to keep viewers in Roumania, for instance, from getting President Kennedy's press conference via Paris? And if so, how would Premier Khrushchev explain the jamming? Both Messrs. Dulles and Bell thought the answer to the second question was: He could not.
